IMPORTANTLY AND IN ADDITION: YUAN SHI DIAN MEDICINE:

Yuan Shi Dian Medicine arises out of the abandoning of existing preconceptions in Medicine. Starting from scratch, so to speak, trusting the solutions found together with feedback from thousands of patients, rather than suffering the conflicts of conventional medical knowledge. Yuan Shi Dian Medicine has been developed by Master Dr. Chang Chaohan (Taiwanese Traditional Chinese Medicine). It has been clinically tried and tested for treating many illnesses, and has been proven by producing a very high success rate, and this, by healing all types of patients with their difficult medical disorders. This includes the enabling of cancer patients to recover in a natural way. Yuan Shi Dian in itself, is a Medical Science whose nature is a combination of diagnosis, treatment and health maintenance, which is ideally, in our experience, what a Medical System should be.

Yuan Shi Dian Medicine's principles and techniques are focused on boosting our body's self-healing capacities. Fundamentally, it is our body's ability to self-heal that ultimately 'cures' all injuries, diseases and illnesses. Applying the correct Yuan Shi Dian Medicine theory and practice will boost our self-healing interior mechanism and help to deal with all incurable diseases such as with cancer, diabetes, dementia, Parkinson's Disease, arthritis, incontinence, and numerous other disorders.

Yuan Shi Dian Medicine is an advanced development on Traditional Chinese Medicine (TCM). It simplifies the Meridian System and the Acupuncture Points. Yuan Shi Dian has found all the major Pathological Source Points of the body and thus, it is truly the most effective way of treating most medical disorders. Dr. Chang Chaohan's research and findings are one of the most important milestones in recent Chinese Medical History. It is a cutting-edge medical concept, a milestone in the modern medical field whether for the Chinese or for all Western Medical disciplines.

The System so far, is not particularly well known in Europe. It is our mission to make known such an effective, powerful and needless to say 'Green' medicine from the East. If you attend on e of our Courses, you will learn the brief history of Yuan Shi Dian Medicine, the basic theories, and you will also experience and witness this powerful Medical System for yourself. During the course, you will also learn the main techniques and methods of the practice and enjoy discussions with a few difficult case studies. However, you may choose to be treated by us and in particular by Dr. Wei Wu with this spectacular form of Medicine/Healing.
